HISTORIC PENNSYLVANIA: EPHRATA CLOISTER
Founded in 1732 by Conrad Beissel and a group of German Pietists, who established a Protestant Monastery known as the German Seventh Day Baptist. View shows first floor kitchen in the Saron (Sisters' House). Restoration by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Comm. Open to the public.

Color Photo by Milt Price, Northport, N. Y.

Made Direct from Kodak or Ansco Color Transparencies by Tomlin Art Co., Northport, N. Y.

GREETING CARDS TOMLIN

Place STAMP Here
5P11362

"PLASTICHROME" ®
POST CARD